SERVICES YESTERDAY IN ST. MARK'S CHURCH

THE ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING WILL BE HELD THIS EVENING

Regular services were held at St. discourse dwelt with the evil effects have accrued in the world through disloyalty and treason as individuals and Christ, and the inevitable atonement that resulted. Christ was led to the cross by the act of a trafter. Sin against the beloved community is the act of treason. The beloved community is the law of the life of Christ and the temptations nized as just and right. he was subjected to. He was made the target of sin but vanquished all assaults hurled against him. Jesus fully atoned for the sins of mankind, and by his glorious death and resurrection redeemed the world. Christ's tears have washed away the red spot and made it sweet and pure again. Yesterday afternoon the rite of bartisti was conferred apon four

At 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon next a confirmation class will be organized for the purpose of receiving instruction preparatory to the visit of the bishop, on Whit Sunday, A tuli attendance of all the candidates is earnestly desired.

On this Monday evening at 7:30 the annual congregational meeting will be held, at which time matters of vital importance to the parish will be discussed, and the rector is particularly desirous that the meeting be fully representative.

The basis of the and the pastor gave us a most excellent sermon.

As usual, the house was filled at the evening service. The subject was treachery that was shown towards. The pastor showed us that notwith-"The Indestructibility of the Church." standing the gigantic efforts to destroy the church ever since Jesus founded it, its growth, though some times slow, had been continuous, and that the principles upon which it was founded had so permeated sociloyalty. Briefly, the speaker sketched ety that they were everywhere recog-

The Christian Endeavor meeting, led by Miss May Kimball, was interesting and well attended.

At a congregational meeting held last Wednesday evening a unanimous call as pastor of this church was extended to Rev. R. W. Bayless and by him accepted. It is expected that installation services will be held Thursday evening of next week after the close of the presbytery meeting which convenes Tuesday, the 22nd, Several ministers will be present on their way home from presbytery. official statements aver that the stock will last until the next harvest, although it is not generally believed. The distribution of flour is going on under rather rigid restric tions.

The grain was obtained just in time to avoid serious trouble with the populace which had become very ugly over the prospects of famine Great preparations are being made for making the next harvest as ampie as possible. All agramitural la horers now with the army are to have fourteen days' leave for the spring planting, and are required to spend this time in the same locality where they worked last year. The government has also announced that groups of soldiers from the reserves, "rented" for agricultural work on ap plication from approved landowners Probably no attempt will be made
